

Hall Rules and Safety Regulations

- Climbing and belaying are allowed only AFTER a ticket was bought and the registration form was filled in. Minors under the age of 12 need a signature of a parent or a legal guardian on all forms. Minors under the age of 12 must be accompanied by an adult.
- Climbing is a potentially dangerous activity and therefore requires a high degree of consideration and self responsibility. Climbing and staying in the climbing area at your own risk. Children must be kept under the supervision of a parent or a legal guardian.
- Bouldering is only allowed at walls designated for bouldering. In top rope and sport climbing sectors no bouldering is allowed.
- Being the lead climber is connected to higher risks of falling. Every climber themselves is responsible for the belaying equipment used.
- Lead climbers have to use all anchors in a route for securing to minimize the risk of falling.
- In overhanging sections no top rope climbing is allowed. Follow up climbing is allowed, if the rope is attached to all existing securing anchors.
- Artificial climbing holds are no subject to any norm. Artificial holds could be loose or brake at any time and thereby impose a risk to climbers and other persons or could hurt them. The operator cannot be held responsible for loose or broken holds.
- Be aware of the fact that climbing material could fall down at any time.
- It is recommended to wear a helmet!
- For hygienic reasons, climbing in everyday shoes, barefooted, or in socks is not allowed.
- The operator, employees or appointed staff cannot be held liable if no insurance coverage exists except in case of gross negligence.
- No attempts should be made to alter holds or features or place new holds or features in any way.
- Please look after your clothes and equipment. The operator excludes all liability in case of loss or theft.
- Persons infringing the rules & regulations or not obeying the instructions of our staff can be excluded from using the facilities. The tuition payed before will not be refunded for being excluded.
- Courses must be held only if pre-booked and approved by the operator of the hall.
- All participants have to comply with our regulations „Climbing safely indoors” - see therefore our information board in the climbing hall.

The Climbing Hall Operator, Naturfreunde Linz GmbH, 4030 Linz, Auwiesenstraße 202